

Better Systems. Better Insights. Better Outcomes for NY Students.

Aligned to NYSED's Integrated MTSS framework (MTSS-I), Branching Minds provides the foundation for districts to build strong student support systems, make data-informed decisions, and deliver whole-child instruction and intervention.

Our approach connects the essential components of MTSS-I to enable cohesive, sustainable practices for districts across NY.

How the Branching Minds Platform + Professional Learning Align With Each Component of the NYSED MTSS-I Framework

Systems Capacity

- Customizable Library of Evidence-Based Interventions
- Built-In Collaboration and Documentation Tools

Fidelity Monitoring

- Automated Flags for Students Who Need Support Plans
- Intervention Usage Reporting
- System-Level Implementation Health Monitoring

Empowering ELL Students Through Targeted Supports

The screenshot shows a 'Log Behavior Incident' form in the Canvas LMS. The form has two tabs: '3000 Missing games' and '40 Behavior Incidents'. Below the tabs is a search bar labeled 'Search by student number or number'. Below the search bar is a table with four columns: 'Writing', 'Speech', 'Science', and 'Social Studies'. The table contains three rows of data. Each row has a green checkmark in the 'Writing' column, a red 'X' in the 'Speech' column, a green checkmark in the 'Science' column, and a red 'X' in the 'Social Studies' column.
